Hershey Shareholder Meeting Question Justin Danhof, Esq., General Counsel and Free Enterprise Project Director National Center for Public Policy Research, May 12, 2020

Hershey is one of the leading sponsors of the Human Rights Campaign. HRC is perhaps the nation's leading opponent of religious liberty. HRC threatens and organizes boycotts when states seek to enact laws protecting the right of people to act according to their faith or to use a bathroom in privacy that matches their DNA. HRC also works to dictate corporate philanthropy away from conservative and Christian organizations.

At a time when our nation needs to pull together as one to overcome the COVID-19 pandemic and reopen the economy, will you reconsider your funding of this bigoted, anti-religious organization that works to tear Americans apart?
